#505 I Need the Prayers of Those I Love

Benediction

When we're stressed - and who isn't nowadays? - often our first inclination is to consult the latest 'how to' book or DVD, or seek out the camaraderie of Christian friends. Reimar Schultze observes: 'At best we get a splash of what we're looking for. Time about God never replaces time with God. Look around your church and tell me whether with all the religious books, CDs, and programs, there are any [that] come up to the stature of Enoch, Abraham, Moses, and Noah. God Himself has been, and always will be the greatest source of information, inspiration, transformation, and fellowship ... Isaac was meditating in the fields when "he lifted up his eyes, and saw..." (Genesis 24:63 KJV). From being alone with God comes seeing ... in our quiet moments He sets before us gifts and delicacies ... hidden to the hurried man. The Bible says, "When [Jesus] had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray" (Matthew 14:23 KJV) ... Many who came to see Jesus traveled for days, yet He sent them away so He could pray. To get alone with God you have to send something away: relatives, friends, schedules ... opportunities ... other people's opinions. That was true with Jesus. Many were offended by Him. He didn't let people-pressure run His life; it was governed by His Father ... [You can] become a slave to man, or live to meet God's expectations. You can't do both. If you do the latter, streams of living water will flow from your innermost being, and you'll have power with God. He'll reveal to you "hidden treasures, riches stored in dark places".' THANKS NEW LIFE: Yes, the new life that we can have and the hope that is ours in our Risen Lord was beautifully expressed by our choir last Sabbath, as the Scripture texts related to Christ's death and resurrection were shared and the hymns and songs giving us time for reflection and moments of celebration were sung. Thank you New Life and guests for the special Easter Blessings.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad." 2 Cor. 5:10. DEPRESSION & ANXIETY RECOVERY PROGRAM: We are nearing the end of our program with the last one to take place next Tuesday. The program has been well received by the current group of participants and have found it to be a positive, well rounded program. There has also been a high interest in the next available program and we are in the mist of finalizing those details for our community. If you or someone you know are interested in the next program being offered, please reach out to one of our Depression & Anxiety Associates. We are thankful for the dedication of the team and commitment shown over these past couple of weeks. We know time is precious and limited for all, and this would not be possible without the team. THANK-YOU!
